RULES

PLAYERS

Invitational tournament reserved for amateur players with a valid federation license and under 25 years of age.

CATEGORY

Under 25 years old male and female category.

GAME MODE

The tournament will be played under the game modality (Stroke play) by individual strokes to 54 holes (18 holes per day).

READY GOLF

In stroke play, "Ready Golf" should be played, but in a safe and responsible way. Play when you are ready - you don't have to wait until the farthest away player has played. You will be encouraged by a referee to play "Ready Golf" if your group falls behind.

For example, play Ready Golf:

- When the player farther away has a difficult shot and is assessing options
- When a longer hitter has to wait for a green to clear
- On the tee if the player with the honor is delayed
- By playing your shot before helping to look for a lost ball
- Where possible, advise other player that you are going to play first

RULES OF THE GAME

The tournament will be played in accordance with the Rules of Golf, the competition conditions and permanent Local Rules of the RFGA.

REGISTRATION

Registrations must be made at least five days before the start of the test. The order of entry will be by handicap.

MAXIMUM NUMBER OF PLAYERS

48 will be the maximum number of players.

The start time will be carried out in order of handicap, starting first with the lowest handicap players.

On the second and third day, the starting order will be established by classification.

The Committee may vary the order of starts for any other reason if it deems it appropriate.

TEES

White and blue bars.

REPLAY

In case of a tie for first place, it will be resolved by playing hole by hole (from 18th) until one of the players achieves a lower result than the other.

TROPHY

The first and second classified in each category will receive a trophy with the name of the event and Club in which it has been played.

SUSPENSION

If any of the rounds of this tournament cannot be played, the committee will decide how to solve the development of the tournament.

TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE
